This musical score page contains three systems of music for five instruments: Eb, L, C, R, and B. The first system begins at measure 307, the second at 309, and the third at 312. Each system includes dynamics like crescendo (cresc.), decrescendo (decresc.), and forte (f), along with trills and grace notes. The notation uses standard musical symbols including treble clefs, quarter and eighth note heads, and various rests. Measure numbers 307, 309, 312, and 318 are indicated above the staves.
